

Michael W. Way, Ph. D.

Education

- Ph. D. ' 92: University of South Florida, Tampa
Curriculum & Instruction : Instructional Technology/CS Education
Applied Learning, Research & Statistics
- M. Ed. ' 88: University of South Florida, Tampa
Computer Science Education
- B.A. ' 73: University of South Florida, Tampa
Mathematics / Natural Sciences & Education

Experience

- '06 to date      Travel, Itinerant photography and occasional CS consulting.
- '00 to '06      Assoc. Professor – Florida Southern College, Lakeland, FL
Department of Mathematics and Computer Science
Classes taught include beginning to advanced topics in computer science, including c++, Java, c#, programming for the web, open source and proprietary databases, scripting, hardware and networking, computer graphics, computer architecture and assembler, Robotics/Embedded Systems and OpenGL.
- ' 94 to '00      Instructor - Center for Advanced Technologies, St. Petersburg, FL Comparative programming languages, Visual Basic, Advanced Placement Computer Science, Engineering Robotics, Lab and Web Manager;
Adjunct Professor - St. Petersburg Jr. College, St. Petersburg, FL, Advanced C++, Visual BASIC, JavaScript
Adjunct Professor - University of South Florida, St. Petersburg, FL
User Interface Design with Visual BASIC
- ' 89-' 94      Asst. Professor - Florida Southern College, Lakeland, FL
CIS / MIS, Instructional Technology, Computer Graphics, Research Statistics
Adjunct Professor - University of South Florida, Lakeland, FL
Instructional Technology, ' C' programming for engineering
- ' 83-' 89      Classroom Teacher - Clearwater High School, Clearwater, FL
Advanced Placement Computer Science, BASIC programming
- ' 73-' 83      Classroom Teacher - Largo High School, Largo, FL
Secondary Mathematics